Century Initiative

Advocis Premium Membership

Why you should have the premium membership of this century?

Advocis requires a strong financial foundation and adequate resources to effectively represent the interests of advisors. The challenges that lie before us are substantial and the threats to advisors' independence must be proactively challenged. To facilitate these efforts, Advocis has created the Century Initiative (CI). Included among our initiative are two premium membership categories, the fees of which will go towards building this financial foundation.

"There has never been a better, more demanding and more exciting time to be a part of Advocis, its future and vision."

Rob McCullagh, CFP, CLU, CH.F.C., RHU

Reasons to bring your membership to Century Initiative ...

- Distinctive recognition at Advocis events, in the Annual Report and FORUM magazine
- The satisfaction of knowing that you have contributed in a substantial way to safeguarding the future of your industry and your own business
- Influence in the future development of Advocis
- And much more ...

Keeping quiet about the benefits of “The Premium Program of the Century” is not easy – members make it their “Initiative” to talk about their experience ...

“No other organization has demonstrated a single-minded commitment to the well-being of advisors and their clients like Advocis has. To enable the organization to continue to be effective in the future, Century Membership will create a strong and stable capital base from which the challenges of the future can be met with confidence.”
